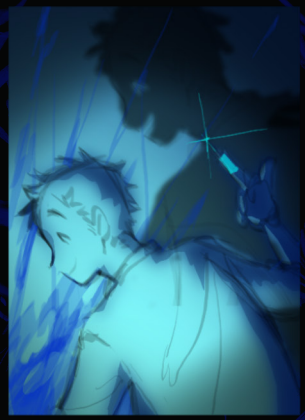
PIECES

NOTE FROM ED:

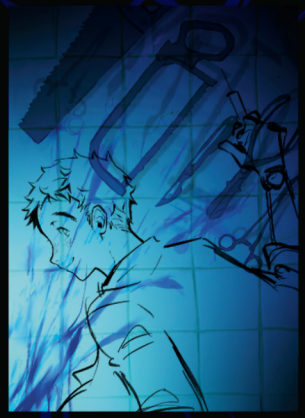
I struggled to draw the print the most out of all the merch...
we settled on the baseball print between these two, but Saz and Jettie liked this Ebisu piece so much we threw her into the package 1 hour before preorders went live...

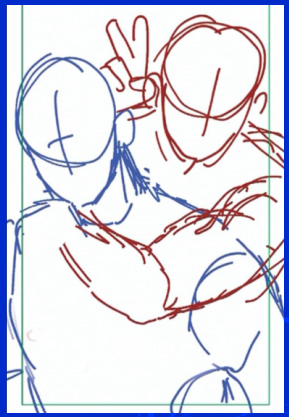
DEVIL
BLUE BLUE BLUE



NOTE FROM SAZ:

for some reason, i suffered so hard trying to draw him that i was procrastinating like crazy... managed to finish him in time though!! whoopee!





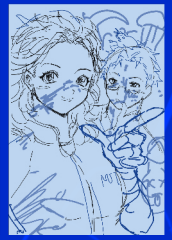
NOTE FROM SAZ:

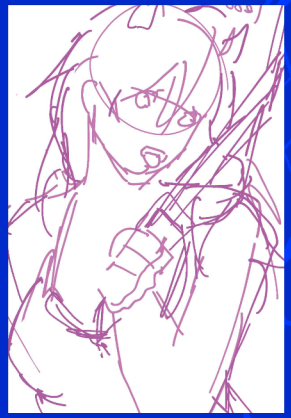
I LOVE THE CROSS. EYES !!!! i was struggling to draw tetsujo, so i have a bunch of scrapped sketches of him because i just wasn't feeling the look of him...

oh sweet wonderful dokuga. so cute so beautiful and handsome. theres a nasty little thing next to him in the sketch but just ignore that . i couldnt help myself...

NOTE FROM JETTIE:

It was a bit hard to come up with a pose for this one, I kept changing my style during the sketch so Shin and Noi were going through it!!! I think it's because I don't like shin's hair (stupid man..PTOOEY)

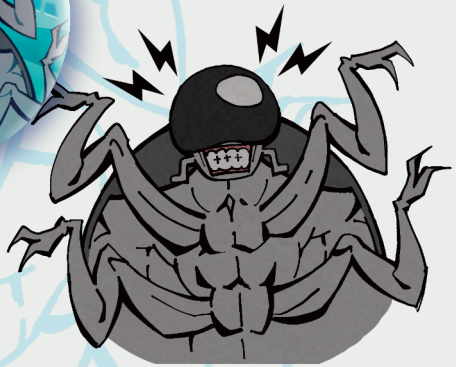




JONSON!

. . . . .

SHOCKING!

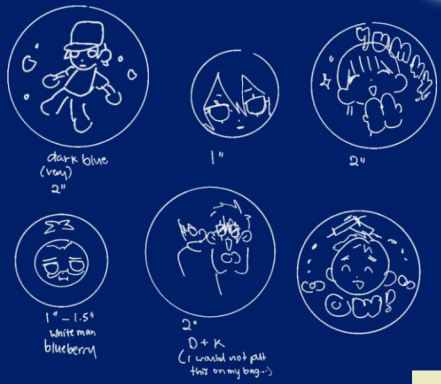


NOTE FROM SAZ:

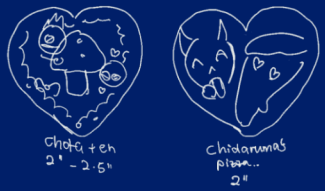
At first, I didn't know whether or not I wanted Jonson to be a button or a die-cut sticker. Ended up going with a button, though... That circle shape suits him, I think!

NOTE FROM ED:

We had a character quota and we had to churn something out for En somehow. I had seen some pins and buttons with a cake design and wanted to try!



I made En and Chota like wedding topper candles. I think they're quite lovely. Yay!



FAMILY PEAS

NOTE FROM ED:

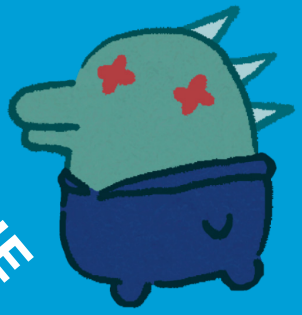
I like peas in a pod. I like Kawajiri as an older brother! Put him and his little sisters in a pod and they are now peas.

NOTE FROM JETTIE:

I pumped this charm out in 2 days while Saz and Ed were in melbourne with me. I had a hard time drawing this freak man, because he's so bald, but it ended up looking good!

STRETCH GOAL

PHONE CHARM



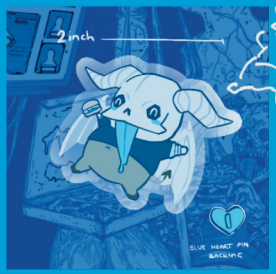
NOTE FROM SAZ:

He started off looking like this... Ugly duckling...

NOTE FROM JETTIE:

I actually stole this idea from Saz — they had a hard time deciding on what to draw but their sketch for Chidaruma was so good I STOLE IT !!!!!

ACRYLIC PIN



Metallic Cookin' Turkey

Prismatic En Family Album Cover

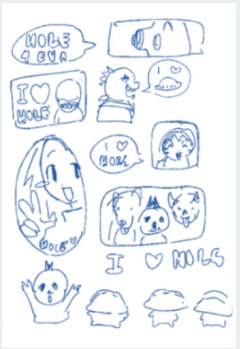
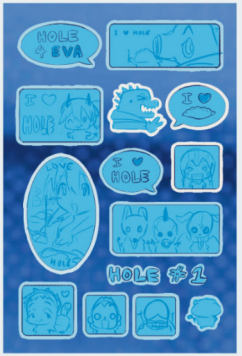
Glitter Smoke Noi

BY ED

NOTE FROM ED:

The Cross-eyes are so under-appreciated! I'd been thinking of doing a Cross-eyes sticker sheet for months even before Blue Dorohedoro. I took the opportunity to make one!





NOTE FROM JETTIE:

I thought it would be a little funny to make a 'hole' centred sticker sheet,.. hehe. Get it? Hehe... sorry

HOLE #1

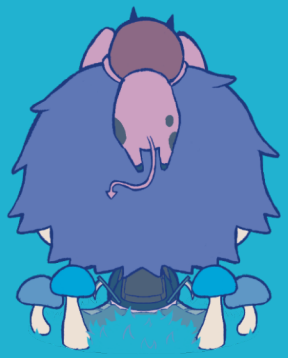
NOTE FROM JETTIE:

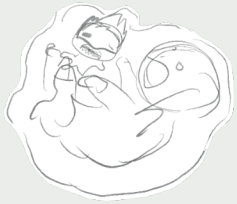
Saz had a cute idea to make a collab piece for one of the stretch goals, so we started off in magical draw. I only made a few though since i ran out of idea juices. But it turned out super cute, can you guess which ones are Saz's and which ones are Jettie's?!

NOTE FROM SAZ:

it was funny seeing the ugly things that came out of our hands in real time... #anime!

EBISU STANDEE





NOTE FROM JETTIE:

I struggled with the idea for a bit, i originally thought of making a rocking standee, with kikurage being the main subject, and a little en being in her paws... I didn't like the silhouette and decided on Ebisu instead, because i love ebisu! and kikurage gets to make a feature too. Win win!!

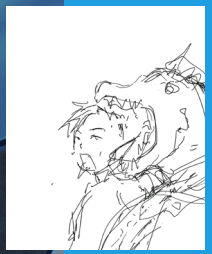
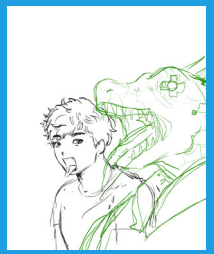
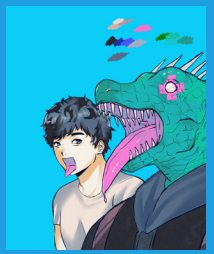
ドロヘドロ

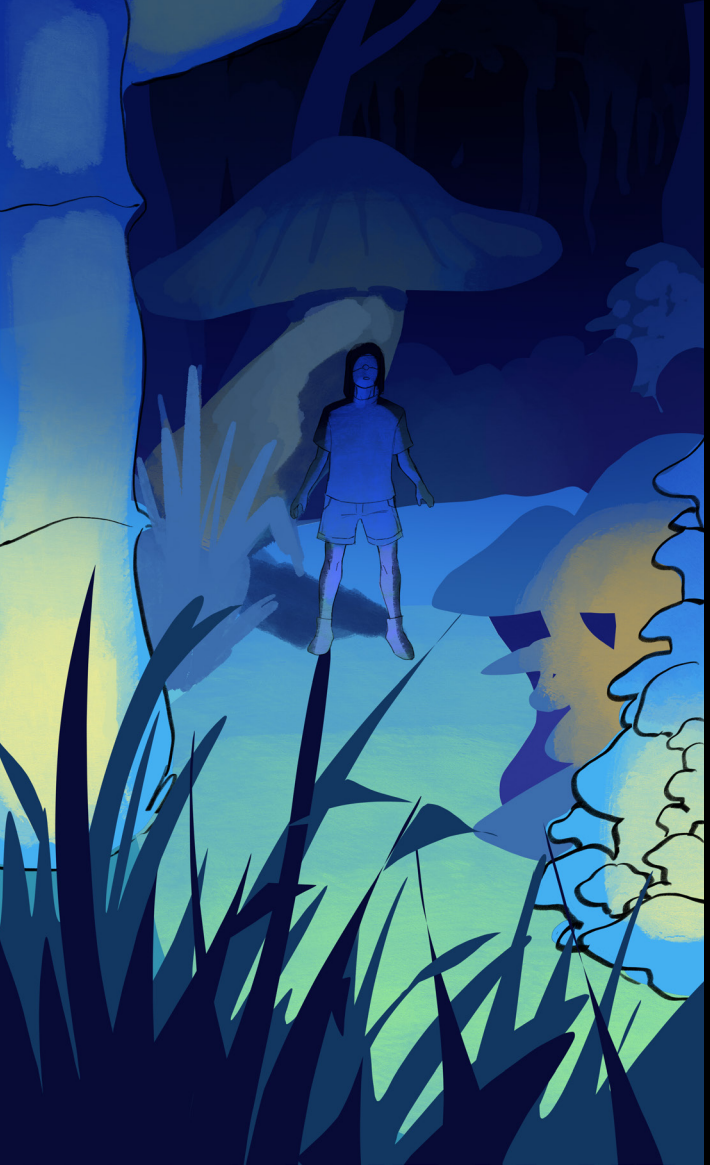
NOTE FROM JETTIE:

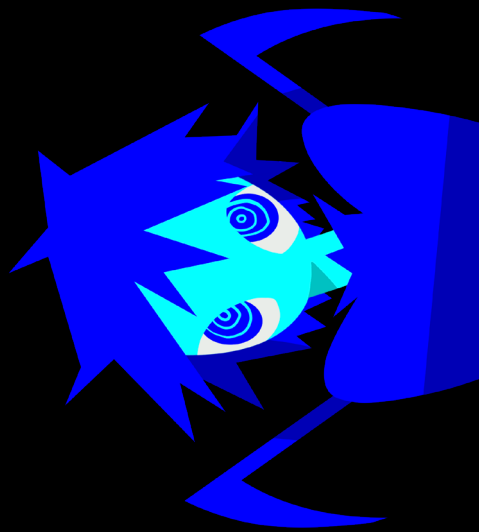
I love Aleks Le (the eng VA for kaiman) and i love kaiman, so naturally I had to draw them together to promote the merch drop!











NOTE FROM SAZ:

hello ebisu... i love her unsettling eyes shes so wonderfulness.... shes so crazyyy cant take her anywhere !!!!!

BLUE
DOROHEDORO

NOTE FROM ED:

I've always liked baseball Tetsujo... so I thought why not do Tetsujo in Worms! I wanted to do variations of blue within one piece, but some blues just appeared green... colour theory I guess. I ended up colour-correcting all of the figures to the same shade, and by that point I found this piece a little too boring and was a little dissatisfied! But I got to draw baseball Tetsujo again so whatever. Happy happy!

NOTE FROM ED:

Super love the idea of a poster for Hungry Bug because all the posters we see in Dorohedoro have En's face on it. Nothing against the guy, but I don't care about his shroom pizza. Soy sauce is a simple sauce yet so delish with Gyoza! It felt a bit flat and I didn't like the idea of it as a print, so I scrapped it.

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR SUPPORTING BLUE DOROHEDORO!

Blue Dorohedoro is our very first project, fueled by passion and a healthy amount of locking in like crazy. We're so grateful to everyone for helping us get this far and helping make Blue Dorohedoro a success. We hope you enjoyed seeing our pieces and the process behind it all just as much as we enjoyed making it!
